Description

An exceptional walnut display cabinet.

A rare and authentic piece from the Shanxi province, renowned for its craftsmen and high-quality furniture.

Tall and shallow, it is ideal for showcasing books or any particular collections while offering optimal storage with its six deep drawers and delightful secret compartment.

Dating from the late 19th to early 20th century, this unique piece, in perfect condition, has retained its original patina and hardware.

This glass-fronted cabinet is a testament to remarkable craftsmanship.
