

Cloisonné horse

Price : €380.00

Caractéristiques

Référence : BEJ-1818

Dimensions : H. 15 x P. 6 x L. 20 (cm)

Material : Cloisonné enamels

Origin : China - Beijing

Age : circa 1920

Description

Cloisonne appeared in the Ming Dynasty. In China ,blue enamels are called 'Jing Tai' which refers to the blue colour ware of the Ming Dynasty's 'Jing Tai' period. Before Qing Dynasty, blue was the only colour.

Because it is made by employing a unique technique, cloisonne is very expensive and was only used by the imperial family or wealthy familie

