Description

Tibetan Console in Recycled Larch Wood – Radiance and Authenticity

Add a touch of charm and energy to your interior with this Tibetan console made of recycled larch wood.

Bright and vibrant, it captivates with its harmonious proportions.

Featuring three practical drawers, it combines functionality and elegance, making it perfect for organizing your everyday essentials.

Its hand-painted floral design makes it a unique and inspiring piece, ideal for enhancing an entryway, living room, or dining room.

With its shallow depth, it fits effortlessly into even the smallest spaces while catching the eye.
